

BIOGRAPHY MIMI LOVE

Somewhere between stardust and strobe lights — inviting dancers to close their eyes, open their hearts, and get lost in music. With three decades of rave culture and a decade behind the decks, Mimi Love takes her audience on an electro-nomadic journey. Her sound is shaped by the world around her, shifting from groovy pop to grounding house — always with deep feeling and a sincere vision. Her ability to weave different genres into a captivating, hypnotic musical experience is what makes her unique. Mimi Love plays house music for dancers who love to dance and lovers who love to love.

Her journey began at the legendary Bar25 in Berlin, where she spun dreamy downbeat tracks — until the „four-on-the-floor“ sound stole her heart. With this newfound passion, Mimi Love launched into a new dimension. Today, she tours Europe, the Americas, and the Pacific, while her roots remain firmly planted in Berlin. From Katerblau to her ties with the Bachstelzen Collective and unforgettable sets at festivals like Garbicz and Fusion, Mimi Love consistently brings her “Love Sound” to the crowd.

Mimi Love is more than music — it's an experience. Her sets are a cocktail of exotic sounds, sprinkled with disco stardust. Even in her early years — adding stilt-walking magic and hands-on carpentry to Berlin's hedonistic scene — she infused everything with wild spirit and elegant charm. Today, she radiates her inner light, blending influences into something uniquely her own. Genres are just boxes — Mimi Love plays moods.
